Free State and Federal Income Tax Preparation

AARP Foundation Tax-Aide is a free tax counseling and preparation service helping low- and middle-income taxpayers, with special attention to those ages 60 and older. This service is administered by the AARP Foundation in cooperation with the IRS. Free electronic filing (e-filing) is included. Note: AARP Tax-Aide volunteers cannot prepare returns that include rental property, military income, alternative minimum tax, crypto currency, or multiple stock transactions.

Appointments are required. All appointments will be held on Wednesdays at the East Northport library building, February through April. Please bring your current tax records and copies of last year's Federal and State tax returns, a photo ID, and a Social Security card or another form of Social Security verification. (Be advised that some tax information, especially brokerage statements, may not be sent until the end of February.) In addition, bring a copy of your property tax bill; you may qualify for a New York State credit. If filing jointly, both parties must be present.

To expedite the preparation process, you must pick up an Intake/Interview Form (#13614-C) at the Adult Reference Desk upon registering and bring the completed form to your appointment.

Registration for all February appointments begins January 10. Register online or in-person at the Adult Reference Desk in either library building. (Northport-East Northport Public Library cardholders only for the first week of registration.)

Non-perishable Food Collection for Ramon's Place Food Pantry

Contributions of non-perishable food items are being accepted for Ramon's Place Food Pantry at Northport High School. Collection boxes are located in the lobby of each library building.

Specific needs include: cereal, juice boxes, coffee/tea, shelf-stable milk, ramen noodle soups, mayonnaise, ketchup, black beans (canned or bagged), tomato products (diced, crushed, puree, sauce). Ramon's Place Food Pantry is stocked by the community, for the community. Bring donated items to the Library through January 31.
