Master gardener Sara Annunziata will show you how to use perennials, trees, and shrubs to create a beautiful and colorful garden that will bloom from the summer through autumn. Her slides will show you a variety of recommendations and she will be happy to answer your gardening questions. All are welcome.

Blood Pressure Check

Wednesday, August 2,

(N) 9:30-10:30 a.m. (EN) 11:00 a.m.-12:00 noon

The Visiting Nurse Service provides a free blood pressure check at the Library on the first Wednesday of every month. All are welcome.

Thank You!

The Library wishes to thank Northport artist Peter Tomlinson for his donation of the majestic bust of Abraham Lincoln, one of America's most revered presidents. The sculpture may be seen behind the Reference Desk at the Northport Library.

Literacy Volunteers Honored

Literacy Volunteer tutors meet weekly with adult students in their local public libraries to develop speaking, reading, and writing skills. This spring two Northport-East Northport residents were honored at the Literacy Volunteers of America-Suffolk County Recognition Ceremony.

Volunteer Carol Hehir was named ESOL (English for Speakers of Other Languages) Tutor of the Year and Jeanette Stellmann was named Basic Literacy Tutor of the Year. We congratulate these dedicated, hard-working volunteers for giving so many hours of exemplary service to their community.

The LVA program offers complete training and support for its volunteer tutors. A 24-hour training course will be held at the Northport Library this fall. Details will follow in the September newsletter.

FOR ADULTS

New in Reference:

Garden Catalog Profiles: A Mail-Order Nursery Guide

Here's something new for a rainy day! Visit the Library to use this new gardening tool. With Garden Catalog Profiles, a CD-ROM available for reference in the Northport Library's main reading room, you can search through hundreds of garden suppliers by plant specialty, city, state, or zip code. Listings include the nursery name, address, telephone and toll-free numbers, and e-mail address. Entries have a message from the nursery, business hours, catalog description, prices, plant varieties and specialties, and customer service details.

ARTJOB

Looking for a career opportunity in the arts? ARTJOB: The Source for Opportunities in the Arts is now available online at the reference computer in the Northport Library's art mezzanine. ARTJOB can be accessed by clicking onto "Virtual Reference Collection: Art." New postings appear daily.

Kerouac: Off the Shelf

Beat author Jack Kerouac lived in Northport during the late 1950s and early 1960s. Today, more than 30 years after his death, his books are still read, studied, and discussed.

The Library, in conjunction with an exhibit at the Northport Historical Society, has prepared an annotated bibliography of its Kerouac collection called Kerouac: Off the Shelf. All of the materials featured in the bibliography are identified by the Library's Kerouac spine label pictured here.

The typescript of Kerouac's The Town and the City; a taped interview with Kerouac; original photographs of Kerouac by artist Stanley Twardowicz; Kerouac's writings, biographical and critical works; lists of Kerouac archives, organizations, annual festivals, bookstores and Internet sites are among the items annotated in the bibliography. Also included, and of special interest, is the chronology of Kerouac's life. Kerouac: Off the Shelf is available for purchase at the Circulation Desk in both buildings.

For the College Bound:

Perils of Packing

Need a checklist for those last minute items you may have forgotten? Pick up your copy of Perils of Packing to learn what goes and what stays. This ultimate list of what to take to your dorm is available at the Reference Desk. Rolls of quarters, paper clips, extension cords . . . and, of course, Roget's Thesaurus . . . it's all there. This is the list you need as you shuffle off to Buffalo, Boston, or Binghamton.

Outstanding Books

After you've finished packing, relax with a book chosen from the brochure Outstanding Books for the College Bound. The American Library Association has published this selection of titles that may be used as a reading checklist before you begin your college courses. The list covers Fiction, Biography, Non-Fiction, Theater, Fine Arts, and Poetry. You'll find this "outstanding" list in the YA Corner.

The Asharoken Garden Club Collection Grows

The Asharoken Garden Club Collection has flourished during its year in the Northport Library. This local garden club, founded in 1924 by Mrs. John Wood Stewart, presented its "home" library collection to the Library in June of 1999. To celebrate its 75th year and keep a commitment to civic responsibilities, club members shared their accumulated garden lore and wisdom with the community. The club's donation of a core collection of books was enhanced with a monetary gift to purchase additional gardening books. This donation has allowed the Asharoken Garden Club collection to grow each year with new materials on topics which appeal to all community gardeners. The materials in this unique collection are each distinguished with a bookplate and spine label bearing the garden club's logo.

Following is a sampling of new titles:

Creating Fairy Garden Fragrances

"Bluebells, cowslips, foxglove, pansies, periwinkle, ragwort, and of course toadstools have legendary associations with the wee folk of nature." This little book is full of seasonal potpourris.

Growing and Selling Fresh-Cut Herbs

Chapters include information on how to start a business, evaluate farm sites, adhere to business laws, find potential markets, and control pests.

Making Bentwood Trellises, Arbors, Gates and Fences

Rooted in a lifelong fascination for nature's wooden wonders, author Jim Long has written a practical manual on the construction of garden apparatuses.

Irene Virag, Newday's award-winning garden columnist, has been graciously donating review copies of gardening books to the Library. At her request, these have been added to the Asharoken Garden Club Collection. Her generosity is greatly appreciated.

Making Herbal Dream Pillows

This title in the Spirit of Aromatherapy series delves into sleep, dreams, the therapeutic use of herbs, and the mixture of potpourris.

The New City Gardener

Natural techniques and necessary skills for a successful urban garden are shown in this book.

Plant Parenthood for Urban Gardeners

This basic book includes easy-to-follow instructions on sowing and reaping easy-to-grow edibles and plants indoors.

Spiritual Gardening

This book is a photographic celebration of the garden as a sacred place.
