FOR ADULTS

Four-Star Library

Library Receives National Recognition for Tenth Year!

For the tenth consecutive year, the Northport-East Northport Public Library has earned a four-star rating in the Library Journal Index of Public Library Service, a national rating system designed to recognize and promote America's public libraries.

The four-star rating is awarded on the basis of five measures of service—circulation, library visits, program attendance, public Internet computer use, and circulation of electronic materials. This year, 31 libraries were awarded Star status in New York, the highest number for any state.

Mindfulness-Based Stress Reduction

(N) Thursday, January 11, 11:00 a.m.

While it is not always possible to eliminate the sources of stress in our lives, we can teach ourselves better ways to deal with life's stressors and thereby reduce the negative impact on our health. Dr. Joseph Diamond of Northwell Health will discuss mindfulness, the practice of moment to moment awareness by purposely focusing on the present.

The Wonders of the Winter Landscape

(N) Wednesday, January 17, 7:00 p.m.

Lecturer, author, and horticultural consultant Vincent Simeone will reveal why winter is one of the most beautiful times of the year to appreciate the garden. His lecture will focus on how to enhance aesthetic value and interest by using horticultural treasures such as winter fruiting plants, broad-leaved evergreens, conifers, and trees with interesting bark.

Current Events in Perspective

(N) Tuesday, January 9, 1:00 p.m.

Join Michael D'Innocenzo, Distinguished Professor Emeritus of History at Hofstra University, to explore significant national and international developments. All attending are welcome to share their views and pose questions.

Fireside Friday: Happy Harps Duo

(EN) Friday, January 19, 7:30 p.m.

Mother/daughter harpists Maya and Juliette Passer will delight you with some favorite melodies. Classically trained, the two have performed around the world and have combined experience from Kharkiv Conservatory, Symphony Orchestra of the Kharkiv Philharmonic, and Manhattan School of Music.

Northport Arts Coalition presents Rose Tree

(N) Wednesday, January 10, 7:00 p.m.

Rose Tree will perform traditional Scottish folk music using a variety of instruments including fiddle, hammered dulcimer, English and Anglo-German concertina, guitar, accordion, and banjo. Their show features a variety of tunes, from lively to poignant, and includes several by Robert Burns. The Rose Tree Scottish show is a great way to start the New Year!

Casablanca

(N) Sunday, January 21, 1:30 p.m.

Filled with dark humor, a powerful script, expressionist lighting, and classic leading roles, Casablanca is a wartime romance that can be seen again and again. Whether you are a student of film, a hopeless romantic, or just someone that enjoys great cinema, join historian Larry Wolff for a lecture followed by a viewing of the movie.

Inside: More Programs for Adults, Teens, and Children

FOR ADULTS

Hummus

(N) Monday, January 22, 11:00 a.m.

Learn how to make this popular vegan and naturally gluten-free appetizer. The class will include a lecture and demonstration of how to make this protein-packed dip, including variations using natural flavorings. Patrons will make their own hummus to take home and enjoy. The Broad Museum

(N) Tuesday, January 23, 7:00 p.m.

The Broad is a new contemporary art museum built by philanthropists Eli and Edythe Broad in downtown Los Angeles. The museum is home to nearly 2,000 works, and is among the most prominent holdings of postwar and contemporary art by artists such as Jean-Michel Basquiat, Cy Twombly, Cindy Sherman, and Chuck Close, plus an ever-growing representation of younger artists. Thomas Germano will present a visual lecture featuring highlights from the collection.

Latinology

(N) Sunday, January 28, 2:00 p.m.

Latinology pays tribute to the legends of Afro-Cuban jazz and salsa with creative arrangements of pop, soul, R&B, and jazz songs infused with salsa, merengue, bachata, cha-cha, and bolero rhythms. All ages are welcome to come and enjoy this dynamic six-member music ensemble as they present their own irresistible blend of sophistication and fire.

Gene Kelly:

Actor, Dancer & Director

(N) Monday, January 29, 2:00 p.m.

Join lecturer Marc Courtade as he discusses the life and career of Gene Kelly, a dominant force in Hollywood from the mid 1940s through the late 1950s. His many innovations transformed the musical film, and he is credited with almost single-handedly making the ballet form commercially acceptable to audiences. This talk will feature many film clips that show the genius of Gene Kelly.

Canasta Party

(N) Tuesday, January 30, 1:00 p.m.

Jacqui Palatnik will be hosting a Canasta Party, complete with prizes. During the event there will be contests in different categories and all players are welcome (some knowledge of the game is necessary). Meet new friends and have fun! Registration begins January 9. (NENA708)
