An Evening With Ambassador Pickering

As part of the continuing festivities for our 75th anniversary, and in celebration of United Nations Disarmament Week, our United States Permanent Representative to the United Nations, Thomas R. Pickering, will speak at the Northport Library on Friday, October 27 at 8:00 p.m.

Ambassador Pickering's topic will be "The United States and the United Nations." During the reception that immediately follows his speech, the Ambassador will have an opportunity to informally answer your questions.

Ambassador Pickering holds the personal rank of Career Ambassador, the highest in the United States Foreign Service. Mr. Pickering has previously served as Ambassador to Israel, to El Salvador, to Nigeria, and to the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan. He has served as Assistant Secretary of State for Oceans and International Environmental and Scientific Affairs, and as a political officer in the 18-Nation Disarmament Conference at Geneva.

Thomas R. Pickering

*Friday, October 27
8:00 p.m.*

Reception immediately following the program.

Tickets, which will be limited to 2 per library cardholder,
will be available beginning October 14.

NOVEL IDEAS

Friday, October 13, 1:00 p.m.

Love in the Time of Cholera by Gabriel Garcia-Marquez will be discussed at this month's meeting. Please call Reference Librarian, Dodie Gillman, at 261-6930 if you would like to join this group.

PAYING FOR COLLEGE

Wednesday, October 11, 7:30 p.m.

Merrill Lynch Financial Consultant, John Cox, will discuss developing a framework for funding your child's education. After looking at ways of projecting actual costs — depending upon the type of college, the age of your child, and the rate of inflation — Mr. Cox will analyze the advantages, disadvantages, and risks of a variety of savings and investment strategies.

TRIAL BY FIRE

Thursday, October 19, 7:30 p.m.

Parents in step relationships often find their new roles bewildering and difficult. Representatives of the Stepfamily Foundation, a non-profit educational and support organization, will explore the many myths and realities in relationships, divorce, and remarriage when there are children involved. No registration necessary.

THE OTHER VIC PRESENTS

Friday, October 13,
8:30 p.m.

Long Island's reknown professional touring troupe, The Other Vic, presents this original production of a comic fantasy about true love and false moves. Tickets, which are $1.00 for adults, 50¢ for students, senior citizens, and handicapped persons, go on sale Oct. 2.

PREPARING FOR CIVIL SERVICE TESTS

Wednesday, October 18 & 25, 7:00-10:00 p.m.

A representative of BOCES III Adult Career Center will conduct these 2 three-hour sessions on the application process, how to take a test, and reading comprehension. No registration is necessary.

RELOCATION LECTURE

Thursday, October 12, 7:30 p.m.

Barbara Sanderson, Relocation Director of Merrill Lynch Realty, will present a program on real estate questions to consider when contemplating relocation. Topics will include: search strategies for selecting a new area; current market conditions, both national and local; determining the value of your present home; and preparing your home for sale.

STUDY SKILLS WORKSHOPS

For Students

Mondays, October 23 & 30,
7:30 p.m. Grades 7-11

Feeling overwhelmed? If you cannot figure out how you are going to complete all your assignments — or just don't know where to begin — we will help you sort things out. In this two-session workshop we will look at studying, setting goals, time management, and note-taking. Enrollment is limited and attendance at both sessions is required. A $4.00 materials fee will be collected at registration which begins at both libraries Monday, October 2.

For Parents

Monday, October 16, 7:30 p.m.

This clinic is designed to help parents create a home atmosphere conducive to study. Topics include working with your child, motivation technique, and encouraging reading and writing.

Enrollment in this session is open to all interested parents, regardless of the ages of their children. Parents of students enrolled in the workshop are especially encouraged to attend. Please register at either library beginning Monday, Oct. 2.

FRIGHT NIGHT "UGLY FACE" HALLOWEEN CRAFT

Thursday, October 26, 7:00 p.m.

Create a truly grotesque soft sculpture face to place in your window or on your bed. A final splash of fluorescent paint will make it glow in the dark — just the thing for scaring off the Halloween goblins! There is a $3.00 materials fee. Sign up at either library beginning Oct. 9.
