PRE-RETIREMENT EDUCATION PLANNING FOR MID-LIFE WOMEN

Wednesday evenings, November 2 - December 7
7:30 p.m. (excluding Nov. 23)

The graying of America impacts most heavily on women. Recent research on women, mid-life and older, has indicated a variety of alarming trends. For example, 70% of the elderly poor are women; roughly 50% of all employed women and 80% of retirement-age women have no pension eligibility; 62% of women live alone by the age of sixty-five; less than 10% of widows receive their husband's pension benefits.

Long Island University's Southampton Campus has established a series of workshops entitled Pre-Retirement Education Planning for Mid-Life Women (PREP) to address the pre-retirement needs of working women between the ages of 35-55. Based upon the dismal economic picture that many older women face today, the goal of these workshops is to prepare women for a more secure, independent old age. The six sessions, led by professional women, will explore such areas as financial planning, health, employment, and the social/emotional issues of growing older. This special program is funded by the Department of Health and Human Services in collaboration with the National Council on Aging. No registration is necessary.

SMALL BUSINESS WORKSHOP

Tuesday, November 15, 7:30 - 10:30 p.m.

SCORE (Service Corps of Retired Executives) will present a workshop focusing on "The Planning of a Profitable New Business" and "Solving the Problems of Your Present Business". The workshop will feature speakers and counselors with broad experience in the management and operation of small enterprises. All those considering starting a new business or those currently in business are encouraged to attend. There is a $10 materials fee. Registration begins Nov. 1.

AN EVENING OF SONG

Friday, November 18,
8:30 p.m.

Join us for an evening of song with three highly acclaimed local artists: Ronald Meixsell, baritone; Julie Anne Meixsell, soprano; and Maria Heger, pianist.

The trio will present a program of classical and popular favorites, including works by Handel, Verdi, Puccini, Vaughn Williams, Rodgers, and Gershwin.

Ronald Meixsell has performed in operas throughout the metropolitan area, including performances with the Mondo Lirico Opera Company in Alice Tully Hall, and the New York Grand Opera. Julie Anne Meixsell has toured nationwide with an ensemble produced by Neil Diamond and recorded on Columbia Records. She has also performed at the Smithsonian Institution in a program which was televised as part of the Portraits in Motion series. Maria Heger has performed throughout the area and has been the accompanist for several "master classes" given by the Metropolitan Opera soprano Eleanor Steber.

Ticket sales begin Nov. 5. Tickets are $1.00 for adults, 50¢ for students, senior citizens, and handicapped persons.

THE OTHER VIC THEATRE COMPANY PRESENTS BLITHE SPIRIT '88

Friday, November 4, 8:30 p.m.

Blithe Spirit '88, an updated, upbeat version of the Noel Coward hit, is the story of novelist Charles Condomine who invites into his placid country home an eccentric, liquor-loving lady psychic in order to learn the language of the occult. Little does Charles or his lovely second wife, Ruth, dream that the seance staged by the psychic will summon back Charles' first wife, now "passed over" for seven years. To make matters worse, only Charles can see the ghost. Tickets, which went on sale Oct. 22, are $1.00 for adults, 50¢ for students, senior citizens, and handicapped persons.

PSYCHO-CYBERNETICS

Tuesday, November 1, 7:30 p.m.

Psycho-cybernetics is a discipline using imagination, relaxation, and positive attitude to learn how to get more out of living. Dr. Alexander R. Mulligan, President of the Institute For Better Living, will discuss how to change your self-image, raise your self-esteem, and look and feel younger and healthier.

ANTIQUES APPRAISAL CLINIC

Thursday, November 17, 11:00 a.m. - 2:00 p.m.

Certified appraiser W. Cora Dubin will join us again to evaluate your antiques and collectibles. A $1.00 ticket must be bought for each item you want appraised. Tickets are available beginning Nov. 5.

DEFENSIVE DRIVING COURSE

Monday, November 28 & Tuesday, November 29
7:00-10:00 p.m.

Mr. David Decker of the National Safety Council will present a six-hour Defensive Driving Course. Completing the course will qualify motorists for a reduction of 10% on their motor vehicle insurance premium for collision and liability each year for three years, as well as a reduction of three points on their driving record. Registration applications may be picked up at the library beginning November 12 and there is a $35 fee.

NOVEL IDEAS

Friday, November 4, 1:00 p.m.

In The Country by Bobbie Ann Mason will be discussed at this month's meeting. Please call Dodie Gillman, Reference Librarian, at 261-6930 if you would like to join this group.

REMEMBERING KRISTALLNACHT

"Night of the Broken Glass"

November 9-10, 1938

With attacks on thousands of Jews, their property and synagogues, Kristallnacht marked the end of independent Jewish life in Germany and Austria. All cultural and community groups were dissolved and the Jewish press was banned.

On November 9th at 10:00 a.m. in the Northport Library, Ruth Minsky Sender will share with us her experiences as a survivor of the Nazi holocaust. Her book, The Cage, a vivid memoir of a woman who lost her youth to the Nazis, focuses on the destruction of the Jewish family, community, and life style — all goals of the Nazis when they engineered Kristallnacht.

This book has received wide critical acclaim. Its sequel, To Life, has just recently been published. Join us for a powerful and emotional remembrance of 50 years ago when "The Night of the Broken Glass" foreshadowed the fate of millions of European Jews.
