Reading Club Show

Our Reading Club Show this year features Vivian Farrell, the "Musical Storyteller." Ms. Farrell's one woman show, complete with colorful settings and costumes, is a richly imaginative introduction to the arts of storytelling and classical music. A professional actress, Vivian Farrell has appeared in films, television commercials and soap operas, and has performed in dinner theater, summer stock, children's theater, and touring companies. As the "Musical Storyteller," she narrated The Nutcracker for the Eglevsky Ballet Company at the Nassau Coliseum. She has also performed at Lincoln Center and Carnegie Recital Hall.

This special treat for young people who have completed the basic requirements of the Summer Reading Club will take place at the Northport Library on Friday, August 14 at 3:30 and 7:30 p.m.

Young Adult Programs

ROCK CONCERT

Thursday, August 6 – 7:30 p.m.
(on the library lawn)

Come celebrate summer and hear your favorite high school rock groups — Yesterday's News and the Blues Review. No tickets are required—just bring your blanket or chair, and your friends. There will also be a Grand Prize Drawing at the concert for tickets to the Los Lobos/Smithereens concert at Pier 84!

SUMMER FILMS

Anne of Green Gables: A New Home
Thursday, August 20 – 3:00 & 7:00 p.m.

Anne of Green Gables: Bend in the Road
Thursday, August 27 – 3:00 & 7:00 p.m.

These Emmy Award winning films from PBS portray the internationally loved story of a mischievous, red-headed orphan adopted by an elderly bachelor and his spinster sister. In Bend in the Road, Anne grows up and finds her element in the academic world, where her rivalry with Gilbert Blythe blossoms into love.
