THE OTHER VIC THEATRE COMPANY
PRESENTS TALLY'S FOLLY
Friday, October 10, 8:30 p.m.

Lanford Wilson's Pulitzer Prize winning play takes place in 1944 in Lebanon, Missouri. Matt, a Jewish accountant from St. Louis, attempts to court Sally Talley. Newsweek called the play "sweet, tender, funny, life-embracing." Tickets, which go on sale Sept. 27th, are $1.00 for adults, 50¢ for students and senior citizens.

THE PSYCHOLOGY OF WINNING WITH PEOPLE
Tuesday, October 21, 7:30 p.m.

David L. Jaffe, president of Learning Communication Consultants, Inc., will present a seminar designed to create an awareness of self-management skills, communication skills, and self-image skills. His principle is a nonsense approach to improving one's relationships with family, friends, co-workers and others. Please register beginning Oct. 7.

PERSONALITY ANALYSIS
Tuesday, October 28, 7:30 p.m.

How is your personality formed? Does it change over time? How important are personality characteristics to career choice, romantic attraction and marital harmony? Representatives from Multimetrics Corp. will address many of these questions, and provide an overview of personality theory including the latest research findings. You may also take a short personality test and receive a report of the results.

JAPANESE BRUSH PAINTING - SUMI-E
Wednesday, October 8, 7:30 p.m.

Sumi-E is an ancient oriental art form which uses only black ink, a brush, clear water and white paper. It incorporates an underlying philosophy of harmony, tranquility and understated elegance. Mu Papp, a practitioner of Sumi-E for over 20 years, will demonstrate how to handle the simple materials and create the quick brush strokes of Sumi-E.

DANCE EXERCISE (For Seniors Too!)
Consecutive Monday mornings, October 20 -
December 15

Instructor Jeri Sapir returns with a new series of classes on Monday mornings from 10:00-11:00 a.m. and 11:00-12:00 noon. The 11:00 a.m. class is offered especially for senior citizens, with exercises and pace geared to this age group. There is a $20 fee for the series. Registration begins October 6.

HOW TO TAKE BETTER PICTURES: A PHOTOGRAPHY WORKSHOP
Tuesday, October 14, 8:00 p.m.

Freelance photographer John Juliano will help you improve your photographic technique and get the most out of your camera. His lecture, illustrated with slides, will cover basic camera operation, effective use of lenses, exposure, flash and filters, composition and more. Please bring your questions and cameras.

BASIC INVESTING
Monday Evenings, October 20 & 27 and November 3, 10 & 17, 7:30 p.m.

John J. Cox, Jr., an account executive at Merrill, Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith, will conduct this five-part seminar beginning with an identification of the specific areas of interest to class members. Subsequent sessions will focus on tax advantaged investing, investing for growth, investing for income, and speculating.

PRE-RETIREMENT PLANNING
Saturday, October 11, 1:00-3:00 p.m.

Retirement is a phase of life that can be full of adjustments and beginnings. Planning is a key ingredient to making a smooth transition to successful retirement. Career counselor Sari Goren will help you focus on your interests, personal values, and available options, to determine how you want most to spend your retirement years.

JAZZ PIANIST STEVE KUHN
Friday, October 24, 8:30 p.m.

One of today's most respected jazz stylists, Steve Kuhn's virtuosity has been called "breathless," "audacious," "passionate." This performance is co-sponsored by International Art of Jazz with funding from NEA, NYSCA and the Suffolk Office of Cultural Affairs. Tickets, which go on sale Oct. 11, are $1.00 for adults, 50¢ for students and senior citizens.

NOVEL IDEAS

Friday, October 10, 1:00 p.m.

The Novel Ideas book discussion group opens its new season with a discussion of John Irving's Cider House Rules. New members are always welcome; please register with Reference Librarian Dodie Gillman.

SPEED READING

Wednesdays, October 15 - December 10
(excluding Thanksgiving eve), 7:30 p.m.

Dr. Joseph Walters again offers this popular course designed to help you read faster and more effectively without losing comprehension. There is no fee, and you may register at the Circulation Desk beginning Oct. 1.

VOTER EDUCATION & REGISTRATION

Representatives from the Suffolk County Board of Elections will be visiting the Northport Library on the following days:

Tues. Sept. 30 12:30-4:30 p.m.
Wed. Oct. 1 12:30-4:30 p.m.
Thurs. Oct. 2 9:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.

In continuous presentations which will begin approximately every 45 minutes, they will explain what voter registration is, how to register, the laws of registration, and regulations and procedures at polling places. There will be a mock voting booth for you to try.

UPCOMING IN NOVEMBER

The Mohawk Players present Somerset Maugham's comedy The Breadwinner on Friday, November 7 at 8:30 p.m. Tickets, which go on sale Oct. 25, are $1.00 for adults, 50¢ for students and senior citizens.

SHUT-IN SERVICE

Did you know that the library provides service to the homebound? Patrons who are confined to home for an extended period of time can have books and audio-visual materials delivered to their homes on a regular basis. If you're interested in finding out more about our "Shut-In Service" please call the Reference Department.

NEW LIBRARY CARDS

The library will be changing to a computerized circulation system in the near future. New computer readable patron library cards will be issued to all patrons in good standing, i.e. those who do not have overdue books or owe fines. If you are among those few who are not in good standing, now is the time to come in and clear up your record so that you can continue to use the fine services your library offers.

East Northport Branch News

HERE'S TO YOUR HEALTH

Wednesday, October 22, 11:00 a.m.-2:00 p.m.

To help you identify and improve the everyday habits that effect your health, the Suffolk County Department of Health Services is offering a computerized health risk appraisal program at the East Northport branch. You will have the opportunity to use the computer to input personal health data and a health educator will be present to help you analyze the results.

BOOK & SANDWICH (W)RAP

Thursday, October 2 & 16, 1:00 p.m.

Imagine that you are Marie Antoinette, or Benjamin Franklin, or Socrates, and that you are sitting around a table discussing issues with other famous and infamous people. This is what Steve Allen imagined on his video program Meeting of the Minds. We will watch and discuss this fascinating series at our meetings which will be held on the first and third Thursdays of each month. To register, please call Molly Schoen at 261-2313.

Young Adult Programs

SCIENCE FICTION/FANTASY CLUB

Thursday, October 16, 7:30 p.m.
(East Northport)

Come and meet others who share your imagination! A Science Fiction/Fantasy Club will be formed if there is enough interest. We hope to see you there!

CHESS TOURNAMENT

Thursday, October 23, 7:30 p.m.

Chess expert Stephen Cornine will talk about the game of chess, its history, winning moves, and more. Participants will then be paired off for the library's first chess tournament. If possible, bring your own game. The tournament will continue every Saturday beginning November 1 through December 13. All are welcome. For more information, please contact Mrs. Hunt at 261-6930.

HALLOWEEN HORROR TALES

Thursday, October 30, 7:30 p.m.

Join professional storyteller Hal Kuebler for a scary, fun evening on the night before Halloween. We promise you a real fright night, so better bring a friend. Open to anyone 13 and up.
