The Newsletter of the Northport-East Northport Public Library

Community of Hearts

an art exhibit in remembrance of 9/11

In recognition of the many lives impacted 20 years ago on September 11, the Library is organizing a community art exhibit featuring hearts painted on canvases. As a Library and community, we will come together with our "hearts" to remember the tragic events of that day.

All ages are invited to take part in this emotive project that will fill the Library with love. Upon registration, participants will receive kits with materials to create their heart(s) including paint, brushes, and a 12" x 12" canvas. All of the artwork submitted will be displayed in a month-long gallery show in September. This event is open to Northport-East Northport Public Library cardholders only. Registration begins July 1. Finished paintings must be returned by July 30. NENA062

NO FINES*

As of July 1, many of the library items that you borrow will not accrue fines if you return them late. With the exception of a few high-demand items, late fees will not be charged as long as the items are returned. If an item is not returned, a bill will be sent for the replacement cost of that item. When you return that long-overdue item, the bill is dismissed. You are still responsible for fees charged for any items that are either lost or damaged.

During most of 2020, the Library waived fines for items borrowed during the COVID-19 pandemic emergency. This fine-free experience provided evidence of the positive response from the community to the elimination of late fees. Statistics agree that removal of overdue fines results in more library cards renewed, more patron visits to the Library, and more items returned.

*Fines will remain on Hotspots, Museum Passes, Music & Memory iPods, Storytime Backpacks, Teen Activity Packs, Video Games, and Launchpads.

FOR ADULTS

ALL ADULT PROGRAMS ARE VIRTUAL and offered through Zoom unless otherwise indicated. Please register on the library website, www.nenpl.org, using your library card barcode and password. ## Long Island Migrant Labor Camps: Dust for Blood

Tuesday, July 20, 7:00 p.m.

During World War II, a group of potato farmers opened the first migrant labor camp in Suffolk County to house farmworkers from Jamaica. Over the next 20 years, more than 100 camps of various sizes were built throughout the region. Corrupt operators who ran the camps offered slum-like housing, cheated laborers out of pay, and left them mired in debt. Join author Mark A. Torres as he discusses his book and this dreadful chapter in Long Island's history. Registration is underway. NENA068 This program is co-sponsored by the public libraries in the Town of Huntington.

Cinema at the Library: Another Round

Wednesday, July 21, 6:30 p.m.

Call 631-261-2313, ext. 210, to register.

New Library Trustee

Carolyn McQuade is a long-term resident of Northport Village and a graduate of Harborfields High School. Ms. McQuade went to Colgate University where she graduated with a degree in history, and then received her law degree from the American University Washington College of Law in Washington, D.C. After being employed in private practice for several years, she moved to the nonprofit sector where she has worked for twenty years as a staff attorney for Nassau Suffolk Law Services. Ms. McQuade is now the pro bono coordinator for Suffolk County. She formerly volunteered and served on the Board of Directors of the Lewis Oliver Farm Sanctuary.

A lifelong avid reader, Ms. McQuade makes frequent use of the wonderful resources not only of the Northport-East Northport Public Library but also those made available through the Library's many cooperative agreements. She looks forward to adding her voice to helping the Library flourish in these challenging times.
