Open to all

Organizing and Decluttering

(EN) Thursday, August 1, 11:00 a.m.

Sometimes our collections of “stuff” start to clutter our homes and we do not know what to do about it. This presentation by the Retired Senior Volunteer Program (RSVP) will provide simple guidelines to help you sort through your possessions—including important papers—and take action.

Open to all

Lawn Lunacy

(N) Thursday, August 1, 7:00 p.m.

Tamson Yeh, a turf and land management specialist with the Cornell Cooperative Extension of Suffolk County, will address the common questions about Long Island lawn care including selecting the right grass types, crabgrass, irrigation, fertilizer laws and timing, mowing, shade tips, and more.

Open to all

Tick Bite Prevention (lobby table)

(N) Tuesday, August 6, 11:00 a.m.-2:00 p.m.

(EN) Wednesday, August 7, 11:00 a.m.-2:00 p.m.

A representative from Suffolk County Department of Health Services will be offering information about the variety of ticks found in Suffolk County, diseases caused by ticks, protective measures that can be taken to prevent tick bites, proper tick removal techniques, and steps to be taken if bitten by a tick. Stop by to pick up tweezers for tick removal, tick identification cards, and handouts.

Open to all

Tick-Borne Disease— What You Need to Know

(EN) Monday, August 19, 6:30 p.m.

Chances are that you or someone you know has been diagnosed with Lyme or another tick-borne disease. Dr. Anna-Marie Wellins, a member of the Medical Advisory Panel of Stony Brook Southampton Hospital's Regional Tick-Borne Disease Resource Center, will speak about the types of diseases that are carried by the different species of ticks found on Eastern Long Island and the symptoms, diagnostic tests, and treatment options that are available. Each attendee will receive a free tick removal kit.

Summer Blood Drive

(EN) Monday, August 12, 1:00-7:00 p.m.

Did you know every donation helps save up to three lives? The Library will host a summer blood drive cosponsored by New York Blood Center and Assemblyman Andrew Raia.

Eligibility Criteria:

- A Donor Card or ID with signature or photo
- A minimum weight of 110 pounds
- No tattoos within the past 12 months
- Age 16-75 (16 year olds must have signed parental permission; age 76 and older require a doctor's note)

For questions concerning medical eligibility, call 800-688-0900. Appointments are preferred, however walk-ins are welcome. Visit: <http://bit.ly/2LpzGQH> to schedule your appointment.

Open to all

Changing Brains: New Therapies in Migraines

(N) Tuesday, August 13, 11:00 a.m.

Headache disorders are among the most common causes of disability worldwide. Migraines affect nearly 12% of the population. Dr. Noah Rosen of Northwell Health will discuss the different types of headaches, review the current understanding of migraines, and update participants on the latest treatments available.

Open to all

Northport Arts Coalition presents Lois Morton: Many Faces

(N) Wednesday, August 14, 7:00 p.m.

This versatile, award-winning performer shares favorite moments from a variety of her shows: her most popular comedic songs of social commentary, as well as songs of Edith Piaf, a dash of Marlene Dietrich and Sophie Tucker, and one or two traditional Jewish songs from the heart.

Open to all

Judicial Power and Democracy: Can We Have Both at the Same Time?

(N) Wednesday, September 4, 7:00 p.m.

Among democracies, America is alone in the degree to which judges are granted what is effectively law-making power by our system. David Green, professor of political science at Hofstra University and winner of Hofstra's Distinguished Teaching Award, will examine the history and philosophy behind this unique approach where unelected (and unremovable) judges—not democratically elected representatives—govern.

Apple Strudel

(N) Saturday, September 7, 11:00 a.m.

Celebrate the coming fall season by creating a classic apple strudel ready to take home and bake in your own oven! Registration begins August 17. (NENA844)
