Outdoor Concerts in the Library Courtyard

Tommy Sullivan: A Thousand Memories
(N) Tuesday, July 15, 7:30 p.m.

Don't miss an exciting performance by Long Island Music Hall of Famer Tommy Sullivan, a founding member of The Brooklyn Bridge. Tommy's dynamic one-man show, featuring four-octave vocals and performances on four instruments, has packed concert venues for years. His song list includes favorites from the '50s and '60s ranging from classic rock to ballads, including everything from Sinatra to jazz to the Beatles . . . and of course, a loving tribute to Johnny Maestro. He will also share inside stories from his long and eventful music career.

The Little Wilson Band
(N) Tuesday, July 22, 7:30 p.m.

Get ready for a memorable evening of "funky rock 'n' soul with a little bit of roll" when The Little Wilson Band returns to the Library. This legendary Long Island band features Dave Leone on drums; Jim Uhl on bass and vocals; Larry Ketchell on keyboards; Greg Krockta on harmonica, vocals, and percussion; Tommy Santoriello on guitar and vocals; and Allen "Little Wilson" Santoriello on vocals.

La Elegancia de la Salsa
(N) Wednesday, August 6, 7:30 p.m.

Spicy, elegant, and seductive—the Salsa excites Latin music lovers of all ages. If you like your music hot, you won't want to miss the exciting Latin sounds of La Elegancia de la Salsa, one of Long Island's finest Latin bands. These energetic performers bring back the great Latin music of the 1970s, playing the music of such giants as Tito Puente, Johnny Pacheco, and Willie Colon.

In the event of rain, outdoor concerts will be held in the Library's Community Room and those showing an NENPL Library card will be seated first.

Cultivate Your Hobbies this Summer

Your summer days may be hazy . . . they may be crazy . . . but they don't have to be lazy! With the extra daylight hours that the summertime brings, you may have a little more time, energy, and motivation to engage in "leisure" activities. Hobbies and interests help ease the demands of everyday life. Garden, hike, play sports, fish, or pore over a coin collection; take dancing lessons, golf, knit, write, or fly a kite! Engaging in a hobby is satisfying, educational, and social all at the same time—very similar to the Library experience. Whatever your hobby may be, the Library has resources to help you pursue your passion.

Books may be the first thing that you think of when you think of the Library—and more titles than ever before are being published. But the Library has much more for you to explore. After you check out a book, take out a DVD. The Library's vast collection of instructional DVDs includes everything from buying a boat to appreciating art to playing the spoons. Want something more hands-on? Attend one of the Library's many programs about crafts or photography, computers or gardening, cooking or genealogy.

For the most current information and trends in various subjects, browse the magazine collection—with hundreds of titles to choose from, there's sure to be one dedicated to your specific interests. Here is just a sampling of the many titles available for browsing. Borrow a few to take home with you today!
