Plants for New York State

(N) Thursday, April 24. 7:30 p.m.

When there are so many plants to choose from, how do you decide which ones will thrive in your garden? Maria Cinque, coauthor of Best Garden Plants for New York State, will help you decide on the best annuals, perennials, trees, shrubs, and vines for your garden. Ms. Cinque writes a weekly garden column for In The Garden, which reaches more than one million readers. Her articles have appeared in numerous publications including The New York Times, Newsday, and Distinction Magazine. She is a frequent guest on television shows including CBS's Sunday Morning, FOX's Good Day New York, News 12 Long Island, WLIW, and Cornell Cooperative Extension News. She also hosts In The Garden with Maria Cinque on WLIE Radio. The Friends of the Library will have copies of her new book available for purchasing and signing. All are welcome.

Do-ing Music presents Canta Libre Chamber Ensemble (N) Friday, April 25, 7:30 p.m.

The Northport Arts Coalition, in cooperation with the Library, is pleased to present Northport's own professional chamber ensemble, Canta Libre. This unique and enchanting group of harp, flute, and strings will feature Paumanok, a newly commissioned work with soprano by Jerry Ulrich, an inspiring work by Arnold Bax, and a lighthearted quintet by Jean Francaix. A meetthe-artists reception will follow. Free tickets are available April 5 at both library buildings.

Arc Duo (N) Sunday, April 6, 2:00 p.m.

The Library is pleased to present a concert by Arc Duo, featuring flutist Heather Holden and guitarist Bradley Colten. The New York Concert

Review calls them "Two supremely talented musicians working together as a perfect ensemble . . . Arc Duo are masters of their instruments."

A native of Northport, Ms. Holden was the first prize winner of the 2006 Haynes International Flute Competition. She performed her Carnegie Hall solo debut in 1998 as a winner of the Artist International Debut Recital Series. Mr. Colten was the recipient of the Andres Segovia Award from the Manhattan School of Music. Together as Arc Duo they have performed at the Caramoor Music Festival, Merkin Concert Hall, and Lincoln Center's Bruno Walter Auditorium. Free tickets are available now at both library buildings.

Shingles: Treatment & Prevention

(N) Tuesday, April 15, 3:00 p.m.

Each year more than one million Americans get shingles, a viral infection of the nerve roots. Shingles symptoms happen in stages, eventually leading to a painful, blistering rash. Margaret Tsopanarias, a clinical pharmacist, will expain the basic signs and symptoms of shingles and discuss new ways to treat and prevent the illness. All are welcome.

Northport: Monday, April 28, 4:00-6:00 p.m. East Northport: Thursday, May 1, 2:00-4:00 p.m.

This panel presentation will give caregivers the opportunity to ask questions regarding legal issues and the documents that they need. The presenter will speak about options that are available and the necessary steps that caregivers should take.

Long Island Reads Book Discussion

(EN) Tuesday, April 22, 7:30 p.m. In April our Library will join with public libraries throughout Long Island to read and discuss Aloft by Chang-rae Lee. This "subtle and tender" tale explores the problems of race and belonging in America from a new angle—the perspective of Jerry Battle, the semi-retired patriarch of a Long Island family. Sensitive but emotionally detached, Jerry escapes by flying solo in his small plane as he ponders his responsibilities to his loved ones.

Chang-rae Lee

Author Chang-rae Lee was born in Seoul, Korea but has lived in America since he was three years old. His first book, Native Speaker, won a Hemingway Foundation/PEN Award and the American Book Award. Besides Aloft. he has written A Gesture Life and the soon-tobe-released The Surrendered. The New Yorker calls his prose "elliptical, riddling, poetic and beautifully made."

Please pick up your copy of Aloft at the East Northport Library Circulation Desk.

at East Northport or Northport Library

9:00 a.m. - 8:45 p.m. Ages 3 and up

When your parents come to the Annual Library Vote on Tuesday, April 8, you will also have the opportunity to vote using a real voting machine* in the Children's Rooms of both library buildings.

This year we ask you to vote for your favorite bug book!

Diary of a Worm

Doreen Cronin

All children who vote will receive a "Voter Exit Coupon" to use at the Library Café!
