David Bouchier presents "The Ghost of Christmas Past"

Relive the memories and traditions of Christmas. David Bouchier joins us for an evening of reflections, stories, and amusing facts about the seasonal traditions that began in Victorian England, including the decorated tree, cards, and the awful truth about Christmas puddings. He will recall highlights of his own childhood Christmases and read excerpts from Dickens' A Christmas Carol and Dylan Thomas' A Child's Christmas in Wales. David Bouchier is an award-winning essayist and host at WSHU Public Radio. His commentaries can be heard on "Morning Edition" every Monday, and he hosts the weekly classical music program "Sunday Matinee." His most recent book is A Few Well Chosen Words: More Wit and Wisdom from Public Radio. Free tickets are available December 1 at both

presents Rashomon

(N) Thursday, December 27, 6:00-9:00 p.m.

Join us for another installment of our film discussion series with a screening of Akira Kurosawa's Rashomon. This allegorical tale set in 8th century medieval Japan is a metaphysical study of truth and reality. Four people recount different versions of the story of a man's murder and the attack on his wife. Toshiro Mifune gives a commanding performance in the eloquent masterwork that revolutionized film language and introduced Japanese cinema to the world.

Pizza and soda wil be served before the film and we invite you to stay after the screening for a group discussion. All are welcome.

Health Insurance Information, Counseling & Assistance Program
