The Northport Rotary Memorial Jazz Concert presents

Bassoon in the Wild!

Friday, November 19, 7:30 p.m.
Northport Library

Take a bassoon, a vibraphone, a bass, and drums, mix in a dynamic musical range of latin rhythms, jazz waltzes, be-bop, rock, and blues and what do you get? Bassoon in the Wild!

Bassoonist Michael Rabinowitz headlines this versatile quartet which has performed at such venues as the JVC Jazz Festival, The Frick Museum, and the Mohonk Mountain House Jazz Weekend.

Michael Rabinowitz's broad musical experience makes him as comfortable with Bach and Mozart as he is with Charlie Parker and John Coltrane. He has recorded with Ira Sullivan, Red Rodney, Wynton Marsalis, John Hicks, Dave Douglas, and Joe Lovano. His festival appearances include Chicago, Montreal, Berlin, San Francisco, and the Hollywood Bowl. He has also appeared in New York City at The Kavehaz and Birdland. His recordings include Bassoon on Fire, Gabrielle's Balloon, Rabinowitz in Utopia, and Bassoon in Orbit.

Diana Herold, on vibraphone, has worked with composers and musicians such as Yo Yo Ma, Anthony Davis, and Buddy DeFranco. She has performed with the Discovery Orchestra, BMI Orchestra, and the Brooklyn Philharmonic.

Drummer Grisha Alexiev has been a percussionist and composer for 28 years. He has performed with such varied artists as Archie Bell, Ken Werner, John Cage, and Arnett Cobb.

Bass player Joe Fonda is also a composer and arranger. He has performed with Brenda Buffalo and Company at Town Hall and has toured Europe with his own group, the Joe Fonda Ensemble.

The audience will have the opportunity to meet the performers and to enjoy refreshments during intermission. This performance is cosponsored by the Northport Rotary Club. Tickets, which go on sale November 2, are $1 for adults, 50¢ for students, senior citizens, and persons with disabilities.

The Guitar Trilogy

(N) Sunday, November 14, 2:00 p.m.

The Library is pleased to present The Guitar Trilogy featuring acoustic guitarists James Erickson, Andrew Falino, and Brian Fleming. Praised by the Southampton Press for their "virtuosic musicianship," the ensemble has performed at Long Island University, the Bruce Museum, and the Vail-Leavitt Music Hall. This spring, The Guitar Trilogy performed at the 12th annual Long Island Guitar Festival as part of an Emerging Artist Showcase. Their repertoire includes the music of Bach, Bellinati, Mozart, Grieg, Albeniz, DeFalla, Piazzolla, Stravinsky, and Haydn. Free tickets are available November 2 at both libraries.

FOR ADULTS

The Sixties

A Film & Discussion Series

The decade of the 1960s was the most turbulent, perhaps the most memorable, and possibly the most controversial in the twentieth century. It was rich in incident — from the Cuban missile crisis, to the civil rights movement, to the war in Vietnam. It was rich in personality — from Jack Kennedy, Lyndon Johnson, and Richard Nixon to Abbie Hoffman, the Beatles, and Janis Joplin.

Join us for The Sixties: America's Decade of Crisis and Change, a six-part film and discussion series moderated by Michael D'Innocenzo.

Mr. D'Innocenzo is a professor of history at Hofstra University and The Harry H. Wachtel Distinguished Teaching Professor for the Study of Nonviolent Social Change. During each program an award-winning documentary film will be shown. Mr. D'Innocenzo will set the scene for each film and provide background information to enhance the viewing experience. All are invited to join in the discussion.

All programs will take place at the Northport Library. Refreshments will be served.

A non-refundable $8 materials fee is payable at registration which begins November 5 at the East Northport Library.

Services for Children and Teens, 1914-2004

When the Library on Main Street opened in 1914, children's materials were simply shelved in one half of the small reading room. In 1940 the East Northport Library was established primarily to provide a nearby library for the community's rapidly growing school-age population. Separate Children's Rooms were created, first in the East Northport library building in 1956 and then in the Northport building in 1958.

In the late 1990s cozy Teen Centers, as well as expansive Children's Rooms, were constructed in the new library buildings. The Rosemary Wells Collection, works of the writer and illustrator, was introduced in the East Northport Library in 1997. The Museum Cove, an attractive display space in the Northport Library, held its first exhibit in 1999. East Northport's Read to Your Bunny Corner was set up in 2002.

Special programming for children got its start in 1949 when school classes were invited to visit the Library. In 1950 children's story hours began, followed by the annual summer reading club. Now there is a full calendar of activities for children and their parents at the Library as well as children's and teen's books, magazines, DVDs, audiobooks, CDs, and educational software.

Looking Outward . . . Library Receives Courtyard Grant!

Thank You,
Senator Flanagan,
Senator Marcellino
and
Assemblyman Raia

On a beautiful fall day, local legislators and Library administrators enjoy the outdoor area at the Northport Library, site of the future 90th Anniversary Library Courtyard. From left to right are Assemblyman Andrew Raia, Senator Carl Marcellino, Library Assistant Director Eileen Minogue, Library Director Stephanie Heineman, and Senator John Flanagan.

The Northport-East Northport Public Library is pleased to announce that Senator John Flanagan, Senator Carl Marcellino, and Assemblyman Andrew Raia awarded a $50,000 grant to the 90th Anniversary Library Courtyard Campaign in September. This donation, along with the proceeds from our spring art auction and donations from supportive community residents, has helped us reach the halfway mark in our fundraising campaign. We are relying on the generosity of our community to help us reach our goal of raising an additional $60,000.

The Library wishes to thank the following individuals, groups, and businesses who have already contributed to the 90th Anniversary Library Courtyard Campaign.
