The Northport Rotary Memorial Jazz Concert presents
The Jazz Alliance Sextet
 Friday, November 14, 7:30 p.m.

Trombonist Ken MacDonald came of age during the era of rock and roll, but he knew that his musical allegiance lay elsewhere—in jazz. He went on to play with the Jimmy Dorsey Band and the Air Force Band, concerned all the while that rock and roll would overshadow the Big Band sound that he loved. So in 1982 he founded the Jazz Alliance Sextet, a repertory group of Long Island musicians dedicated to preserving the Big Band sound.

Brian Lewis, the group's trumpet player, has played with Lionel Hampton, Jimmy Dorsey, and the Les and Larry Elgart Band. Tenor sax player Ray Germann has played with Lionel Hampton, the Les and Larry Elgart Band, the Thad Jones-Mel Lewis Band, and in the Broadway production of "Annie." Glyn Bower, on bass, has played with Billie Eckstein, Billy Daniels, Wild Bill Davidson, and Bob Wilbur. Pianist John Caponegro has played for the Steven Scott and Glen Burton club date offices, and drummer Thom Penn toured with the Spurrilows and Clark Terry.

The Jazz Alliance Sextet, which has received grants from the New York State Council on the Arts and the National Endowment for the Arts, has performed at clubs, concert halls, and parks throughout Long Island.

The audience will have the opportunity to meet the performers and to enjoy refreshments following the program. This performance is cosponsored by the Northport Rotary Club. Tickets, which go on sale November 1, are $1 for adults, 50¢ for children.

Memory Loss, Aging, and Alzheimer's Disease

(EN) Wednesday, November 12, 7:30 p.m.
 For many people, some forgetfulness is a normal part of aging. However, memory loss can also be a symptom of more serious problems such as Alzheimer's disease or depression. Darlene Jyringi of the Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Science at Stony Brook University Hospital and Medical Center will explore the difference between normal age-associated memory loss and the memory loss caused by dementia. Please call the East Northport Library to register.

Looking for a unique and useful gift for the holidays? Why not give a gift certificate for the Library Cafe? Gift certificates may be purchased at either Library Cafe.

EXHIBITS

Northport Gallery: "Eye of the Beholder" Photographs by Patricia Ross

Pat Ross has been capturing memories on film for over twenty years, believing that a photograph evokes a mood and detailed remembrance of a time and place. Having lived in the Midwest, Long Island is her birthplace as well as that of her ancestors dating back to the 1800s. Her work has been shown in juried photography exhibitions and publications.

East Northport Gallery: Still Life Assortment by Marilyn Aitken

For the past 25 years, artist Marilyn Aitken has operated a thriving business creating miniature collectibles. Her works have been shown in shops, private collections, and museums around the world. Recently she has focused on creating larger works, and in this exhibit she shares her still life creations produced with acrylic, fabric, watercolor, and pencil.

East Northport Display Case: Long Island Woodturners Association

Lathe-turned objects created by members of the Long Island Woodturners Association will be on display this month.

Bilingual Books for Children

The Library's growing collection of bilingual children's books is a valuable resource for non-English speaking children in our community. These books also provide children with the opportunity to see and experience the printed word in a variety of languages and alphabets. Early exposure to other languages introduces children to the world and develops deeper appreciation for cultural diversity. Here is a sampling:
