FOR ADULTS

Introducing the George E. Beatty, Jr. Architecture Collection

George E. Beatty, Jr. was the third generation of his family to head one of the nation's oldest architectural firms. For more than thirty-five years, he worked as architect, planner, designer, and consultant to both public and private institutions. Mr. Beatty and Todd Harvey, his partner at Beatty, Harvey and Associates, were responsible for the design and renovation of the Northport Library, as well as the new library building at East Northport.

George E. Beatty, Jr. passed away in February, 2001. In honor of his many contributions and accomplishments, Todd Harvey has donated the funds for the books for this memorial collection. The shelving for this area was generously provided for by Hodkinson Associates.

Spindrift is frequently featured at South Street Seaport and the Long Island Maritime Museum. Free tickets are available March 2 at both Libraries.

Focus on Art and Architecture at the Northport-East Northport Public Library

A Special Collection Begins

The Northport Public Library was originally designated as a repository for art resources in 1961 in a cooperative project with Suffolk Libraries. Northport's outstanding collection, now 10,000 volumes, continues to extend its scope to include an increasingly wider range of media and materials.

Our Librarians select a wide spectrum of materials suitable for the art scholar as well as the craftsman and collector. Included in the collection today are books, databases, Internet resources, journals, auction house catalogs, career and employment guides, and the newly inaugurated George E. Beatty, Jr. Architecture Collection.

Books

The Library's art reference book collection includes the respected thirty-four volume Dictionary of Art published by Grove as well as Mayer International Auction Records and the Dictionnaire Critique et Documentaire des Peintres, Sculpteurs, Dessinateurs et Graveurs by Benezit.

The circulating collection encompasses a vast selection of topics and time periods of art and artistry and continues to grow as new titles on art history, schools of art, individual artists, commercial art, photography, sculpture, and antiques are added

The George E. Beatty, Jr. Architecture Collection A memorial collection named for Library architect George E. Beatty, Jr., this comprehensive collection of architectural works enhances our strong collection of resources in this field. The collection features books on American architecture, notable architects, professional standards, and dictionaries, and encyclopedias.

Online Resources

Art Online Artfact Professional. an online resource of art, antiques, collectibles, and jewelry sales records, includes over 4 million public auction sales results written by auction house experts. A full-text index allows researchers to search for subtle combinations of features and decorative details. This database, with 4,000 images displayed in 16 million colors, is available only at the Northport Library.

Grove Dictionary of Art Online, part of the Virtual Reference Collection, is one of the most comprehensive online reference resources for all aspects of visual arts, from prehistory to the present day. With links to interesting websites and up-to-date news and views, this database allows patrons to go beyond the articles on the printed page.

To search for articles that appeared just a few years ago or decades past, use the Wilson Art Index and Abstracts. 1984+ and the Wilson Art Index Retrospective 1929-1984, accessible via the Virtual Reference Collection.

Find your place in the art world with ArtJob, an online source for professional opportunities and key information in all areas of the arts. National and international listings include prospects for careers in performing arts, visual arts, and academia, as well as internships, fellowships, conferences, and commissions.

auction prices, discovering emerging genius, and more.

The Library retains current subscriptions as well as

Magazines and Journals

Current as well as retrospective information is important when tracking trends, locating exhibits and shows, finding extensive backfiles for many art magazines in original print format to retain the integrity of their images. Our collection of more than 70 titles includes: American Art Journal Domus American Art Review American Artists Graphis American Craft Kalliope Aperture

Apollo Architectural Record Architecture Art and Antiques Art & Auction Art Bulletin Art in America Art Journal Art News Art Review ArtBvte ArtForum Artist's Magazine Ceramics Monthly Christie's New York

Gazette Des Beaux Arts La Revue Du Louvre L'Oeil Master Drawings Metropolitan Museum of Art Bulletin Modern Painters New American Painters New Art Examiner Oriental Art Orientations Print School Arts Sculpture Review Southwest Art Stained Glass Studio Potter

Auction Catalogs

Sotheby's and Christie's, invaluable for the high-quality color reproductions in their auction catalogs, can be searched through the Library's online public access catalog. The Northport Library's art catalog collection focuses on auctions of American paintings, Impressionist paintings, and contemporary art. The ArtFact database can locate the sale date and sale number which guickly enables the patron to connect to the auction information they are seeking.

The Legacy Continues

As we continue to focus on the best art and architectural resources, our collection will continue to serve. entertain, and inspire patrons and visitors alike.
