FIRESIDE FRIDAY

Guitarist Ron Renninger

(EN) Friday, February 9, 7:30 p.m.
Newsday has called guitarist-songwriter Ron Renninger "an original stylist and captivating performer . . . definitely on the cutting edge of Neo-folk." Mr. Renninger, who recently toured as the opening act for Christine Lavin, received his early experience playing rhythm guitar in Chuck Berry's back-up band. He moved on to become a sought-after session guitarist on New York's recording circuit. He has performed at the Telluride Bluegrass Festival and New York City's Bottom Line. All are welcome.

Plaza Theatrical presents "Love Letters"

(N) Sunday, February 11, 2:00 p.m.
 Plaza Theatrical returns to our stage with A.R. Gurney's imaginative and heartwarming production of "Love Letters." This unique theatre piece is comprised of the letters exchanged between two childhood friends over a lifetime. Romantically attached to others, they continue to exchange letters as life leads them in different directions. Tickets for this performance are available beginning February 3. Tickets are $1 for adults, 50¢ for students, senior citizens, and persons with disabilities.

Health Insurance Information, Counseling & Assistance

(N) Thursday, February 8, 1:00-4:00 p.m.

Great Books: A Musical Romp

(N) Sunday, March 4, 2:00 p.m.

Are great books great fun? They are in this galloping musical revue performed by the actors and singers of Primrose Productions. Enjoy Emma Bovary explaining why she did what she did to the tune of "Little Buttercup," or Gulliver telling us why he "remains an Englishman." Nineteen songs — from rousing to riotous — bring us unforgettable characters from the classics, all in the spirit of great fun. Free tickets for this performance are available February 17 at both libraries.

"Tracks Through Time" Oral History Workshops

(EN) Tuesday, February 27, 7:00 p.m.
 (N) Tuesday, March 6, 7:00 p.m.
 (N) Tuesday, March 20, 7:00 p.m.

This series of workshops is a first step for those who would like to join the Library's ongoing oral history project, "Tracks Through Time." By audiotaping interviews with members of the community, the Library's volunteer oral historians capture personal accounts of the day-to-day life, events, organizations, and issues that make up our area's rich history. Family historians and others interested in conducting interviews will also find the workshops useful. On February 27 Roma Connable of Columbia University's Oral History Office will survey interviewing techniques. For more information call Librarian Barbara Johnson at 261-2313.

Children will be able to share experiences and ask questions. Ideas for handling various situations will be shared. Registration begins February 27 at the Northport Library.

The Bookmark Spot

Stop by the Library and pick up February's bookmark by Blair Ingraham. A reading list, compiled by our Children's Librarians, is on the back.

FOR CHILDREN

In The Museum Cove: THOSE WHO CAME BEFORE: NATIVE AMERICANS

The Museum Cove, a specially-designed learning environment for school-aged children, celebrates its third year in the Northport Library. This month The Museum Cove is pleased to present an exhibit on loan from The Southold Indian Museum that focuses on the early life of Native Americans of Long Island and the Eastern Woodlands. The exhibit opens February 1 and will run through the month of May. Among the fascinating artifacts that children may enjoy are arrowheads, tools and weapons, clothing and jewelry, children's toys, cooking utensils, baskets, and pottery.

Highlights from our current Museum Cove book display:

JP San Two Pairs of Shoes by Esther Sanderson
 For Maggie's eighth birthday she receives a pair of moccasins and a pair of black patent leather shoes and now she "must remember when and how to wear each pair."

JP Smi Jingle Dancer by Cynthia Leitch Smith
 Jenna, a young girl of Muscogee and Ojibway descent, borrows jingles from the dresses of friends and relatives so that she can perform the jingle dance at the powwow.

J Bru Eagle Song by Joseph Bruchac
 Fourth grader Danny Bigtree moves to Brooklyn from an upstate Mohawk reservation and finds it difficult to make friends when he encounters stereotypes about his Native American heritage.

J970.1 Son The New York Public Library Amazing Native American History by Liz Sonneborn
 The history and culture of Native Americans is presented in a question and answer format.

The Southold Indian Museum is devoted to the cultural history of Long Island's Native Americans. The collection illustrates the evolution of Native American culture from prehistoric times to the arrival of the colonists. As Long Island becomes more populated, traces of these early civilizations are disappearing. The Southold Indian Museum is a place which connects our children to the early inhabitants who hunted, fished, and farmed in the forests and waters of Long Island.

Watch for these upcoming programs:

Wilderness Traveling Museum

(N) Wednesday, February 21, 10:00 a.m. Grades K-2
 Come and see how Native Americans on Long Island lived long ago. Touch deerskin and bones, grind corn, and make a necklace to take home. Registration begins February 6 at the Northport Library.

Museum Day for Preschoolers

(N) Saturday, March 3, 10:00 a.m. & 11:00 a.m. Children ages 3-5 (not yet in kindergarten)
 Enjoy Native American stories and a related craft. Register for this independent storycraft at the Northport Library beginning February 10.

Also, look for this upcoming program:

Exploring Native American Culture

Children in grades 3 and up will explore foods, customs, and lifestyles of early Native Americans. Watch for additional programming during the Southold Indian Museum exhibit.

Information From the Board of Trustees

The Board of Trustees has set the annual Library Vote for Tuesday, April 3, 2001. Voting will be for two purposes: to vote on the Library budget for 2001/2002 and to elect one trustee whose term will commence on July 1, 2001.

Petitions for nominating candidates for the office of trustee will be available from the Clerk of the Library Vote at the Northport Library, 151 Laurel Avenue, Monday through Friday from 9:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., beginning February 14. The last filing

EXHIBITS

Northport Gallery: Illustrations & Children's Portraits by Dennis McDermott

Nationally-renowned children's book illustrator Dennis McDermott's drawings have been described as "lavish, beckoning readers to curl up and be transported to unexplored realms." Critics have cited the homage Dennis McDermott pays in his works to masters of the golden age of illustrators such as Jessie Wilcox Smith, Howard Pyle, and N.C. Wyeth. A resident of Mattituck, where he also teaches art classes, McDermott illustrated Andrew Lang's The Flying Ship which received a Parent's Choice Gold Award in 1995. He also illustrated Oom Razoom, The Listening Silence, Gilly Martin the Fox, and The Golden Goose.

East Northport Display Case: Girl Scouts: More Than Just Cookies

Girl Scouts of Suffolk County Service Unit #1 exhibit photographs of their meetings, trips, and community service projects. The scouts also share some of the items they have made.

East Northport Gallery: Photographs of Native Americans by Edward Richards

Edward Richards, a resident of Fort Salonga, shares photographs that he has taken on his trips to powwows and Native American festivals in New York, New England, Montana, and Minnesota. Some of Mr. Richard's photographs may also be seen in The Museum Cove's exhibit.
