

Carolyn McQuade, Library Trustee Candidate

Carolyn McQuade is a long-term resident of Northport village, and a graduate of Harborfields High School. Ms. McQuade went to Colgate University where she graduated with a degree in history and then she got her law degree from the Washington College of Law at American University, in Washington, D.C. After being employed in private practice for several years, she moved to the non-profit sector where she has worked for twenty years as a staff attorney for Nassau/Suffolk Law Services. Ms. McQuade is now the pro bono coordinator for Suffolk County. She formerly volunteered and served on the Board of Directors of the Lewis Oliver Farm Sanctuary.

A life-long avid reader, Ms. McQuade makes frequent use of the wonderful resources not only of the Northport-East Northport libraries but those made available through the libraries' many cooperative agreements. She looks forward to adding her voice to helping move the Library forward in these challenging times.
