"Whether you are planning to remodel a house, look at a magazine, read a newspaper or just drop in to have a cup of coffee and sit down and relax, the library is the first place that comes to mind."
— Robert C. Smith

"Certainly library-sponsored trips have brought knowledge and wonder to my life as I've been transported to Japanese gardens, to flower shows out of state, historical sites, NYC museums and exhibits, and I've tasted Italian pastries in Brooklyn, strolled under the Brooklyn Bridge, then once, just once, I dined at the Waldorf Astoria!"
— Phil Carolan

"Northport-East Northport is a wonderful community and I really feel the library is the heart of it. It is not just a library. It is a community center."
— Jeannine Tayler-Stack

"As a community, cultural and educational center, the Library is without equal. Lectures, concerts, seminars, movies, tax preparation, children's programs, the list is endless. It is one-stop shopping for the mind and soul. And, no one does it better. Great job all around!"
— Ralph A. Notaristefano

Who We Are

Formed in 1995, the Friends of the Northport-East Northport Public Library strive to promote the value of quality library service in our community. The Friends lend support to the library through advocacy, fundraising, programs, and projects.

What We Do

Our Friends sponsor events and projects within the library and assist at special library and community events. Funds raised through these efforts, along with membership dues are used to promote the library's visibility throughout the community.

Friends-supported activities have included:

- purchasing Museum Passes for free admission to New York City and Long Island museums
- offering discounted tickets to area attractions and museums
- offering reduced-rate group tickets on the Long Island Rail Road
- assisting with author appearances and book signing
- sponsoring concerts and lectures
- providing beautiful plantings to brighten the exterior of our library buildings
- offering library tote bags for sale to the community
