Perspectives on Parking

We are continually looking for ways to make the Libraries more accessible. Your two new Libraries now have a total of 86 public parking spaces: 27 at the Northport Library and 59 at the East Northport Library. Each lot has spaces reserved for persons with disabilities: 2 at Northport and 3 at East Northport.

At the Northport Library

A safe crosswalk on Laurel Avenue has been provided by Northport Village. This convenient crosswalk leads directly from the front entrance of the Library to the ample parking across the street at the Laurel Avenue School. We wish to thank the Library staff who use the Laurel Avenue lot as well as those patrons who park there when they are in the Library for a long period of time. Their courtesy is appreciated.

At the East Northport Library

In the spring, the Town of Huntington will add a curb cut on the east side of Larkfield Road opposite Eighth Avenue. This will provide better access to the sidewalk approach to the East Northport Library. The Town will also be exploring ways to enhance safety at the Larkfield Ave. crosswalk.

comes alive through YA Historical Fiction.

- Dove and Sword - Nancy Garden tells the story of Joan of Arc — her life, mission, trial, and execution.
- Finishing Becca - Ann Rinaldi sets the story in 1778 Philadelphia when beautiful, rich Peggy Shippen sets her sights on General Benedict Arnold and tries to convince him to turn traitor.
- Lyddie - Katherine Paterson tells of a Vermont farmgirl who leaves home in the winter of 1843 and makes her way to the mill town of Lowell, Massachusetts. Enduring long hours of deafening looms and lint-filled air as a factory worker, Lyddie looks forward to her wages and freedom.
