FROM ROOSEVELT TO ROOSEVELT: The American People in World War II: A Film & Discussion Series

ON THE 70TH ANNIVERSARY of the U.S. entry into World War II, the American People, as they experienced the war years, is the focus of a new series of films and discussion groups. Free and open to all, the series is made possible with a grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities.

Co-sponsored by the Northport-East Northport Youth Bureau

FRIEDSON FRIDAY

East Northport Middle School Musical Theater

Friday, January 18, 7:00 p.m. (EN) Saturday, January 19, 2:00 p.m.

Join the talented students of the East Northport Middle School Musical Theater in this preview of their upcoming production of Disney’s Tangled. The students have spent months learning about the story line, singing for hours and perfecting their dancing skills. Disney’s Tangled will play on Thursday, April 18, at the Gateway Center in Riverhead, as part of the Gateway Center’s 10th anniversary celebration. The show will continue through April 20.

Understanding Healthy fats

Certified nutritionist Catherine Calixti explores the role of fats in the body and their role in healthy eating and overall health. We will talk about healthy fats, how to select the right fats and understand how much of the “bad fats” we should eat. We will also talk about the science of lipids and cholestrol. Bring a notepad and your questions.

Teen Design a Bookmark Contest

Open to all teens in grades 6-12 with the family storytime. Free tickets for this Under the Sea Shimmering Bookmarks Party will be given out to the first 25 children who successfully register. Registration is required and will begin February 2.

Time Design a Bookmark Contest

For adults and children grades 6 and up. The Whaling Museum will work with children to create a paper New Bedfordullan that celebrates the region’s maritime history. The Whaling Museum’s exhibit opens January 7 and continues through April 30. Renowned ship-in-a-bottle expert and author Guy Serranti will be leading this group of children in the creation of this beautiful bookmark. Designs will be selected to decorate a Bookmark Contest. Entry guidelines will be distributed on the first day. Entry deadline is February 19.

Dairy Park

For children 4-10 and their parent/caregivers. A hands-on program for children in preschool, elementary, and middle school levels. The Whaling Museum presents a blend of art, science, and history. Participants will make a whale craft as they learn about the whaling industry and the life of a harbor-town family.

For Families

The Whaling Museum’s Under the Sea Shimmering Bookmarks activity with children ages 3-5 (not yet in kindergarten). Young Jeremiah Poole writes a secret diary chronicles the adventure of a young whaling boy. Younger Jeremiah Poole’s journey and his love affair with a whale are told through his diary book, Peg and the Whale, by Charla L. Draper

Use of Photos and Films

The Whaling Museum has obtained permission to display photographs and film clips ofwhaling and whaling-related activities.
