FOR CHILDREN

Pictoue Storytime: A New & Growing Collection

The Northport-East Northport Public Library's A New & Growing Collection highlights the adult collection to be enjoyed with children. The collection identifies Picture Books from the Popular Library collection and includes picture book formats. Many illustrations have enabled sophisticated art to be reproduced in picture book formats. Many illustrations enable reading them can be difficult sometimes—especially if you see them for the first time.

Test your understanding of the content with the following questions:

1. What is the title of the A New & Growing Collection?
2. What type of collection is A New & Growing Collection?
3. What does A New & Growing Collection identify?
4. What are some of the benefits of picture books?
5. How can one approach reading picture books?

FOR TEENS

FOR ADULTS

The Collector of Moments

Here is a sampling of titles from the Picture Books collection published between 1997 and 2002 that invite students to identify and care about important social issues. Since they present thought-provoking stories that are targeted to children, they are an excellent way to introduce them to a variety of social issues.

1. The Collector of Moments
2. An Untold Story
3. African Americans in Northport: The 19th Century
4. The Northport-East Northport Public Library's collection of these books identified with a special label
5. The Northport-East Northport Public Library's growing collection
