An Artful Success

Lois Kfoury, a native New Yorker, and her husband Paul have been traveling the world for many years, taking pictures of the past with her and the present with her husband. This part of the ancient world, its art, artifacts, and what remains fascinates them. As an artist and photographer, Lois Kfoury has always had a fascination with the ancient world, its art, artifacts, and what remains. Mrs. Kfoury travels to that area often to photograph its people as well as the ruins. This part of the world is like a treasure chest waiting to be captured by her camera.

Mrs. Kfoury’s love for the ancient world is evident in her photography. She captures the essence of the past in her images, creating a visual story that transports viewers to another time and place. Her photographs are not just a record of the past, but a testament to the beauty and mystery of the ancient world.

As an artist, Mrs. Kfoury’s work is a celebration of the past and a reflection of her love for the ancient world. Her photographs are a reminder of the importance of preserving our cultural heritage and the need to continue to explore and learn about the past.
