FOR CHILDREN

EVENTS presents
The Amazing String Quartet (N) Friday, October 6, 7:30 p.m.

Rogers’ satiric commentary on life—often hilarious—made him a favorite of stars and common folk alike. This performance will feature music by his contemporaries and personal favorites. The Northport Arts Coalition, in partnership with the Northport Libraries, presents a return engagement of the popular quartet. Free tickets are available October 14 in either library building.

Volunteer Opportunities
Team Volunteer Opportunities for the 2017-2018 school year.

ON THE BOOKSHELF
Genevieve McMullen, author of The Odd and Curious Life of Will Rogers, presents an overview of the folk hero of the American West. As a politician, a newspaper columnist, and a prizefighter, Rogers entertained the country with stories of his adventures as a cowboy, farmer, and rancher. McMullen tells his story and discusses his contributions to our society.

Ghost, Spiders & Aliens (EN) Thursdays, October 19, 26 & November 2, 7:00-8:30 p.m.

Do-you-Means—real or imagined—are in the air for Columbus Day. We will look at the many images of the ghostly and the disturbing that have accompanied the holiday since its inception. A new book by Robin Pogrebin (The Haunted History of the New York Stock Exchange) will be discussed and to read new book lists, compiled by our librarians. Please register at the Northport Library.

Story Parade (EN) Thursdays, October 19, 26, November 2 & 9, and December 14, 4:00 p.m.

Children in grades K-5 with families are invited to bring your favorite plush animal, and join us at the library for a story parade as we celebrate the season. There will be stories and songs, and you never know what a ghostly surprise might await. Registration begins October 9 at the Northport Library.

FOR ADULTS

VOICES presents “They’re Gonna Cut Out Night” (N) Friday, October 6, 7:30 p.m.

A new play by the late Robert Altman, they’re gonna cut out night is set in a New York City studio apartment in the 1950s and features Joseph Joffily as an artist who, after a fire, is forced to move to New York City in the 1950s. The play is a dark comedy and a look at the lives of ordinary people as they struggle to make ends meet.

Free Friday Low Lights (EN) Thursday, October 5, 7:00 p.m.

Join the Northport Arts Coalition for an evening of free live music and a fun atmosphere at the Northport Village Center. Enjoy local artists and localWindowSize type for window type unknown.
