FOR CHILDREN

Talking Books are recorded in a format that requires specialized equipment. Northport Arts Coalition and the New York City Department of Parks and Recreation are collaborating to bring you a selection of books that are particularly appealing to children. These books are available at the Northport Public Library and will be read on Wednesdays from 10:30 to 11:30 a.m. at the Wickford School. The Reading Buddy program is a great way for children to improve their reading skills and for adults to share their love of books with children.

FOR ADULTS

How to Become a Guide Dog Parent

Our new book, "Guide Dog Parent: A Guide to Raising a Guide Dog," is now available. This book is a comprehensive guide to raising a guide dog, from the initial decision to adopt a guide dog to the day your guide dog is ready to help you.

FOR ADULTS

What Rap You Up At Night?

The words "what rap you up at night?" are used in the context of a question about sleep habits. The answer is not provided in the text.
