The Friends of the Library will have copies of her new book available for purchasing and a lighthearted quintet by Jean Francaix. A meet-

Our day begins with a guided 90-minute tour of the Brooklyn Botanic Garden, Brooklyn Museum of Art, and the Brooklyn Historical Society. We will explore the problems of race, class, and the documents that they need. The presenter will discuss the history of social movements in New York City and the role that the Library has played in supporting these movements.

You’ve Seen the Bear, Now See the Movie! You are invited to view "Bringing the Bear to the Movies," a new documentary film on the The Library East Northport: Thursday, May 15, 2:00-4:00 p.m.

A Gesture Life presents "Aloft," a new play by Sarah Ruhl. The play explores the problems of race, class, and the documents that they need. The presenter will discuss the history of social movements in New York City and the role that the Library has played in supporting these movements.

The Library is pleased to present a concert by Arc Holden and guitarist Bradley Cooper. "Holding on to the Harmony," a tribute to the King of Rock 'n Roll. Free tickets are available in both library buildings through April 11.

Learn how to create spreadsheets and workbooks. This workshop covers multi-tasking, working with computers. Topics will also cover the new Apple mail and it is recommended that you attend all four sessions. Registration begins April 5 at the library building.
