FOR ADULTS

Northpoint Connection presents "Truman and MacArthur: Adversaries for a Common Cause"

As the world’s two greatest countries faced a war that would decide their respective fates, two of the world’s greatest leaders met face-to-face. The result was a contest that defined both nations and their legacies. What did they learn from each other? How did their insights influence American foreign policy in the 21st century? Thursday, December 2, 7:30 pm - registration begins Dec 28 at either library or online. For more information, please contact Nancy Morcerf at the Library or通过电话 631-259-5184.
