“Jack’s Last Call: Say Goodbye to Kerouac”
(N) Monday, March 1, 7:30 p.m.

Join Jim Broderick, author of “Jack’s Last Call”, as he discusses Kerouac’s life and times, focusing on “On the Road” to a tragic finale. Long after Kerouac’s death, Broderick and his wife, Sarah, spent two years touring the Paris of the 1950s, revisiting the places and people who influenced Kerouac during his early years. Through their research, they discovered that Kerouac was a sensitive, vulnerable man, and this tour allowed them to expand their understanding of his life. In this special event, Broderick will talk about his book, Kerouac’s creative process and the evolution of his writing. Registration begins March 1 at either library building or online. (NENA146)

Design for Everyone
(N) Thursday, March 11, 7:30-8:30 p.m.

Join Michael Stack, senior associate and PG2 Design Director, as he presents ideas for designing functional and enriching spaces for all ages and abilities. Mr. Stack will explore the world of design in the classroom, library, and outdoor environment. As part of his presentation, he will discuss the design of buildings, playgrounds, and public spaces including accessible design considerations. Mr. Stack is Design Director and Senior Associate at PG2, a New York City based firm. Having worked in the field of architecture and interior design for over 20 years, he has handled a variety of projects, including large-scale corporate and institutional buildings, and residential developments. Mr. Stack received a Bachelor of Architecture degree from City College and a Master of Architecture degree with a specialization in Urban Design from the University of California, Berkeley. Mr. Stack has served as an Adjunct Professor in Design at the School of Architecture at the University of Maryland, College Park. Mr. Stack also serves as an Adjunct Instructor in Architecture at City College of New York. Mr. Stack is a licensed architect in New York State and a member of AIA. He received the AIA New York Honor Award for Excellence for his work on the World Trade Center Site.
