Northport Arts Coalition presents Art's A Bullion Demons Performance Festival

The Northport Arts Coalition, in cooperation with the Northport-East Northport Public Library, presents a series of performances by local artists. The festival will take place on Thursday, October 13, at 7:00 p.m., at the Library. The performance will feature the Butoh dance company, "The European Connection," and will be followed by a discussion with the performers. No registration required.

Ghosts of Long Island

Mal investigator Joe Giaquinto. Thirty new and exciting ghost stories from the region are featured. Joe Giaquinto is a retired investigator who has been researching the paranormal for over 25 years. He will be at the Library on October 13, at 7:00 p.m., to discuss his experiences and findings. This is a free event, and no registration is required.

Francesca’s Song: A Lifetime of Letters

The evocative novel is based on the story of her grandmother, Francesca LaGuardia. Ms. Daeppen, who resides in the United States, is visiting the library on October 13, at 7:00 p.m., to discuss her book. She has performed worldwide as a recitalist, a soloist, and has recorded many albums. This is a free event, and no registration is required.

The Graduate

He served as archivist for Rockefeller University, the New York Public Library, and the New York State Library. Archivist Arthur Sniffen will talk about his career and his experiences as a archivist. This is a free event, and no registration is required.

Family History Research for Beginners

Join Joanne Chang for a workshop on how to start your family history research. Joanne Chang is a genealogy expert and will be at the Library on October 13, at 1:00 p.m., to discuss the basics of family history research. This is a free event, and no registration is required.

Celebrating Italian-American Heritage Month

The Northport Arts Coalition presents Italian-American Heritage Month. Celebrating the rich cultural heritage of Italian-Americans, this event will feature a variety of performances and activities. The festival will take place on October 13, at 7:00 p.m., at the Library. This is a free event, and no registration is required.