FOR CHILDREN

Books a Popper!
Monday, December 3, 10 a.m. and 6:30 p.m.

Ms. Gebel has prepared some of the most popular books for young children this year. She will read excerpts from each book and discuss their appeal. There is no charge to attend. The 6:30 p.m. session will be geared toward adults and older children.

Registration for the following programs begins January 3.

The Bookmark Spot
1500 years ago. Evolving into more than just a game of strategy, Scrabble continues to challenge players of all ages. James Plath will answer these questions and share some secrets of unwritten communication. Children in grades 3-6. (Please select one session) (EN) Monday, December 10, 10 a.m. (N) Thursday, December 27, 2:00 p.m.

Upcycled T-shirt
Join the Teen Services Department in creating holiday play and decoration. Upcycling is the art of taking something that you no longer want or need and turning it into something new. We will be making scarves, bookmarks, and more. Children entering grades 1-5 with accompanying adult; siblings welcome. (N) Friday, December 28, 7:00 p.m.

Stop by for these drop-in storytimes. We'll read and share some secrets of unwritten communication. Children in grades 3-6. (Please select one session) (EN) Thursday, December 13, 7:00 p.m. (N) Friday, December 28, 7:00 p.m.

Teen Writer's Workshop
Join the Teen Services Department in creating holiday play and decoration. Upcycling is the art of taking something that you no longer want or need and turning it into something new. We will be making scarves, bookmarks, and more. Children entering grades 1-5 with accompanying adult; siblings welcome. (N) Friday, December 28, 7:00 p.m.

For more information on these programs please call the Teen Services Department. Drop-in storytimes require no registration.