

FOR ADULTS

Volunteer Fair

(N) Friday, September 27
4:00-7:00 p.m.

When we share our time and talents we improve the lives of others, strengthen our community, connect with one another, and transform our own lives. Studies suggest that volunteering can provide many benefits. Volunteers have lower rates of depression and lower mortality rates; older volunteers often benefit from increased social and physical activity; children and teens who perform service get to look beyond themselves and understand how they can impact their community.

Do you want to share your time and talents as a volunteer but don't know where to start? Come to the Library's Volunteer Fair and speak with representatives from local organizations that are actively seeking volunteers. Participating organizations will include: The American Red Cross, The Arthritis Foundation, Avalon Park & Preserve, Canine Companions for Independence, EAC Network, Family Service League, The Guide Dog Foundation for the Blind, Island Harvest, Make-A-Wish, Mothers Against Drunk Driving, New York Blood Services, Northport Arts Coalition, Northport Historical Society, RSVP, The Visiting Nurse Service & Hospice, and Volunteers for Wildlife, among others. No registration is required.

Revitalize Your Resume Clinic

(N) Tuesday, September 10, 6:30 p.m.

Make your resume a dynamic reflection of your skills and accomplishments. Career counselor Maureen Provost Ryan will discuss effective resume strategies for both recent graduates and experienced job seekers, including techniques for completing online applications. Bring your resume and it will be critiqued by Ms. Ryan. Registration is underway at either library or online. (NENA404)

Simply Creative Italian Feast

(N) Tuesday, September 24, 7:00 p.m.

The Feast of San Gennaro has been celebrated in New York City's Little Italy for more than 85 years. Get ready for your own San Gennaro celebration by learning how to prepare three delectable dishes with Chef Rob Scott. You will learn to make crostini with grilled scallion, tomato, and mascarpone; pomodoro fresco sour dough crisps; and pistachio cannoli bruschetta. A non-refundable $5 materials fee is payable at registration which begins September 5 at the Northport Library. (NENA406)

Northport Arts Coalition presents "Finding Mr. Right"

(N) Wednesday, September 18, 7:00 p.m.

Northport Reader's Theater presents "Finding Mr. Right," a reading of two plays by local playwrights about the misdirection that can happen when trying to find a new relationship. Follow the twists and turns of "My Better Half" by Claude Solnik, and the hilarious mishaps in "Written In The Stars" by Michael Casano, then meet the authors and casts for a discussion of the plays. Directed by Jo Ann Katz of Northport Plays, these two stage works will leave you wondering who Mr. Right should be. No registration required.

Hiking on Long Island

(N) Monday, September 16, 7:00 p.m.

Learn how to hike safely on the extensive trail networks that are found on Long Island's parks and preserves. Hiker Kevin McCoy will discuss the various parks and trail systems, navigation tools and techniques, proper clothing and gear, safety concerns, and where to find more information. He will also share photos taken while hiking Long Island's trails. No registration required.

St. Francis Hospital Outreach Mobile Bus

(EN) Friday, September 13, 10:00 a.m.-2:00 p.m.

St. Francis Hospital's Outreach Bus will visit the East Northport Library to provide free health screenings and information for patrons age 18 and older. Screenings will include a brief cardiac history, blood pressure check, and simple blood tests. Outreach professionals will also provide patient education and referrals as needed. Screenings will be on a first-come, first-served basis.

Medicare Basics

(N) Thursday, September 19, 2:00 p.m.

Currently covering nearly 44 million Americans, Medicare is the nation's largest health insurance program. John Sciacchitano from the Retired Senior Volunteer Program (RSVP) will present a lecture designed for those who are new to Medicare as well as for those who want a better understanding of the system. Registration begins August 26 at either library or online. (NENA399)

Staying Independent for Life

(EN) Tuesday, October 1, 9:30 a.m.

Falls are the leading cause of injury for older adults. A health professional from The Suffolk County Department of Health Services will present this two-hour workshop on building confidence and reducing falls. Topics will include balance and strength training, vision and medication review, how to buy safe footwear, and how to keep the home environment safe. Registration begins September 10 at either library or online. (NENA408)

FOR ADULTS

Immigration in America: Melting Pot or Salad Bowl?

(N) Fridays, October 4, 18, November 1, 8, 22 & December 13, 10:00 a.m.

America has been a "nation of immigrants" for more than 400 years. The vast majority of us can trace our roots to foreign lands. How has America treated its newest residents and how have they become acculturated and assimilated? How extensive has intermarriage been across ethnic, religious, and racial lines? To what extent has "the American Dream" worked for most immigrants?

These are just a few of the issues that will be explored in this fall's six-part discussion series with Michael D'Innocenzo of Hofstra University. We will focus on up to three nationality groups in each program, highlighting the ethnic groups that are most representative of our Northport-East Northport community. Comparisons will be made among the experiences of various groups, and we will explore how America compares to other nations in terms of immigration policies and experiences. No registration required. Brief and optional background readings will be available at the Reference Desk in both library buildings beginning September 20.

Attention Book "Groupies"

Your Library is the ultimate source for all of your reading needs. Let our Librarians make a title suggestion or use our NovelList and NextReads databases for titles, series, and author information. Also please remember that when you need multiple copies of a title for your book club participants, the Library can make arrangements to obtain them for you. Ask a Reference Librarian for further information. These are just some of the ways that the Library can support your reading habit. Speak to a Reference Librarian to learn more about any of these resources and services.

Landmarks and Historic Sites of Long Island

(N) Monday, October 7, 7:00 p.m.

Everyone lucky enough to live on Long Island already knows that it's like nowhere else in the world. From lighthouses and a 100-year-old carousel to World War II camps and missile sites, Long Island native and author Ralph Brady will take you on a fascinating journey into Long Island's past. Through light historical commentary and an extensive collection of photographs, Mr. Brady will explore dozens of historic sites. A New Museum Cove Exhibit
September-December 2013

Are you a Do-It-Yourselfer? This month we begin a new exhibit in the Museum Cove of the Children's Department highlighting arts, crafts, handiwork, inventions — anything and everything made by hand. DIY @ Your Library celebrates the creativity and resourcefulness of people.

Stop by to see a selection of pieces in our display case, all of which were handmade by Northport-East Northport Public Library staff members. Children will have the opportunity to learn a number of skills—such as crocheting, sewing, cooking, and woodworking—through participating in a program or enjoying the hands-on items in the Museum Cove. In December the Library will host a mini Makers Fair where individuals and families can come and share their creations with others. Additionally, we invite you to visit the Library's Museum Cove DIY pinboard on our Pinterest link at www.nenpl.org for tons of creative ideas you can try at home.

What better place to learn, grow, and create than at your Library! Our new Museum Cove exhibit, DIY @ Your Library, on display from September to December, shows that every one of us can be a maker.

Apple Pie Pops

(N) Friday, October 4, 6:30 p.m.
For families

Join an instructor from the Baking Coach and create your own apple pie pops to take home and bake. In addition, participants will enjoy a demonstration of making homemade jam. (90 min.) Registration begins September 20 at either library or online. (NENJ223)

FOR CHILDREN

The Road to Reading

Children's Librarians at the Northport-East Northport Public Library can help you nurture your child's literacy skills. The Road to Reading is a progressive series of programs for children and parents. Offered throughout the school year, these programs help children develop listening and thinking skills along with a lifelong love of reading. Visit the Early Literacy page on the Children's page at www.nenpl.org for information about the developmentally-appropriate programs that are offered at the Library.

Registration for preschool series programs will be held once a month throughout the school year. Your child's Northport-East Northport Library card is required for in-person or online registration.

Registration for the following series programs begins September 12.

Please note:

Programs are offered according to age on a monthly basis. Please ensure your child meets the specific age criteria of the program for which you are registering. Programs are designed with these age specifications in mind. Your child may register for one series program per month. If the program you want is full, you may place your child's name on one waiting list only. Please use your child's Library card to register and be sure to provide all necessary information in the "note to instructor" field.

FOR CHILDREN

National Association of Mothers' Centers

The Northport-East Northport Public Library is pleased to announce a new partnership with the National Association of Mothers' Centers, an independent organization with a network of mothers' groups across the United States. The National Association of Mothers' Centers recognizes the importance, challenges, and rewards of mothering and offers moms a community of support, camaraderie, information, and empathy.

This fall, the Library will be offering its first National Association of Mothers' Centers discussion group for moms and children at the East Northport building. Our Moms' Group welcomes mothers and their children, from birth to age three, to an environment of discussion and discovery that focuses on the needs of all moms. This new venture is part of our role as a member of Family Place Libraries, an organization which helps Libraries across the country to develop family-centered programs, services, and spaces.

No registration required. Those showing an NENPL Library card will be seated first.

Your Library is a "Family Place Library"

Did you know that The Northport-East Northport Public Library is a Family Place Library? Family Place Libraries™ is a nationwide network of Children's Librarians who advocate the ideal that literacy begins at birth. Family Place Libraries are resource centers for early childhood information, parental education, emergent literacy programs, socialization, and family support. The centerpiece of your Library's "Family Place" program is the Road to Reading program series which provides a foundation for the development of early literacy concepts. The Family Place Libraries network currently includes more than 300 sites in 23 states.
