

FOR ADULTS

The Way We Get By

(EN) Wednesday, November 9, 3:00 p.m.
(N) Tuesday, November 15, 7:00 p.m.
"Sometimes all it takes is a handshake to change a life." The Library is pleased to present the award-winning documentary The Way We Get By. Beginning as a simple story about troop greeters—a group of senior citizens who gather daily at a small airport to thank American soldiers departing and returning from Iraq—the film quickly turns into an unsettling, compassionate, and inspiring story about aging, loneliness, war, and mortality. No registration required.

On the Bay: Bay Houses and Maritime Culture on Long Island's Marshlands

(N) Wednesday, November 16, 7:00 p.m.
The marshlands of Long Island's south shore are dotted with a historic collection of unique bay houses that baymen have used as base camps for clamming, fishing, and hunting for generations. In the second edition of On the Bay, author and folklorist Nancy Solomon has documented the lifestyle of bay house dwellers, whose families have harvested Long Island's waters for more than three centuries. Copies of On the Bay will be available for purchase. No registration required.

Medicare/Medicaid Options

(EN) Monday, November 7, 10:00 a.m.
An overwhelming majority of older Americans want to remain in their homes for as long as possible, yet there is a lack of knowledge about programs and services that make prolonged independent living possible. Representatives from The National Aging in Place Council, a nonprofit senior support network, will provide information on asset protection and the expenses covered by Medicare and Medicaid. No registration required.

Faces and Places Around the World

(N) Wednesday, November 30, 7:30 p.m.

The Northport Rotary Jazz Concert

The ZigZag Quartet

Friday, November 18, 7:30 p.m.
Northport Library

A rare treat awaits music lovers of all ages as the Library presents the ZigZag Quartet. This innovative chamber group zigzags through countries, time periods, and stylized dances—from classical to flamenco, Brazilian sambas and Argentinian tangos, to jazz classics.

In 2009, the ZigZag Quartet made its Lincoln Center debut in the David Rubenstein Atrium, where it received accolades for its acoustic blend, versatility, and visually entertaining performance. Comprised of Francisco Roldán (guitar), Alexander A. Wu (piano), Hilliard Greene (double bass), and Danny Mallon (percussion), the ZigZag Quartet has performed extensively, including concerts at Bargemusic's "Jazz and More" series, Trinity Church on Wall Street, and the Mannes College Guitar Festival. The quartet is scheduled as part of Lincoln Center's "Meet the Artists" programs for 2012. ZigZag Quartet's self-titled debut CD was released in 2010.

This program is cosponsored by the Northport Rotary Club. Registration begins November 1 at either library building or online. Please note: ticket holders will be seated first. All others will be seated as space permits. (NENA281)

As part of their continued commitment to the veterans of our community, the Rotary Club and the Library are requesting donations of food gift cards or canned food which will be donated to the Northport VA's Homeless Veterans Program.

David Bouchier presents

Peripheral Vision

(N) Sunday, December 4, 2:00 p.m.

In his new book Peripheral Vision: Irregular Essays from Public Radio, David Bouchier brings humor and insight to the oddities and puzzles of everyday life. These entertaining commentaries were first broadcast on public radio stations WSHU and WSUF on Long Island and in Connecticut where Bouchier's quirky sense of humor has made him the best-known public radio personality in the region.

Peripheral Vision is the fourth collection of Bouchier's commentaries on his life as an accidental immigrant in America. He brings a fresh approach to the rituals that carry us through the year—our obsession with fitness, the horrors of travel, and the many annoyances of modern life.

Copies of Peripheral Vision will be available for purchase and signing. Registration begins November 12 at either library building or online. Please note: ticket holders will be seated first. All others will be seated as space permits. (NENA282)

*a 10:30 session will be added if registration warrants

Tales for Twos and Threes

Children 2-3 years with adult; no siblings

Experience a beginning storytime that will emphasize narrative skills when we share books and flannelboard stories. Read a board book together to give your child an opportunity to understand that the print they see consists of the same words they speak and hear. Participate in a hands-on activity. (30 min.) (NENJ688)

East Northport: Wednesdays, 9:30 a.m. November 9, 16, 23

Sing and Play

Children 1-3 years with adult; siblings welcome

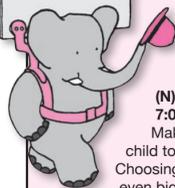

Sing songs and rhymes while using scarves, bells, balls, and hoops that engage children in musical and physical activity to reinforce early literacy skills and foster a love of language. (30 min.) (NENJ686)

East Northport: Mondays, 10:00 or 11:00 a.m. November 14, 21, 28

Please note:

Programs are offered according to age on a monthly basis. Please ensure your child meets the specific age criteria of the particular program for which you are registering. Programs are designed with these age specifications in mind. Your child may register for one series program per month. If the program you want is full, you may place your child's name on one wait list only. Please use your child's Library card to register and be sure to provide all necessary information in the "note to instructor" field.

Attention Parents!

Neighborhood Nursery School Night
