

FOR ADULTS

Taming of the Shrew

(N) Friday, July 29, 7:30 p.m.

All the young gentlemen are in love with Bianca but, alas, she cannot marry until her older sister Kate is wed. Kate, however, is a shrew and no man will have her! Join Plaza Theatrical for a fully-costumed performance of Shakespeare's romping comedy. Tickets, which go on sale July 1, are $1 for adults, 50¢ for students, senior citizens, and persons with disabilities.

Island Hills Chorus

(N) Tuesday, July 12, 7:30 p.m.

Join the Island Hills Chorus for an evening of lively entertainment in celebration of National Barbershop Musical Appreciation Day. The Chorus is a chapter of Sweet Adelines, a world-wide organization of women singers committed to advancing the musical art form of four-part acappella harmony, commonly called barbershop. All are welcome.

Integrative Therapies

(N) Thursday, July 7, 7:30 p.m.

For people living with chronic or life-threatening illness, integrative therapies such as massage and acupuncture can help decrease pain, fatigue, and depression while improving overall well-being. Jane Greene, RN, LMT of Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center will describe the benefits of integrative therapies. All are welcome.

EXHIBITS

Northport Gallery:

"A Contrast in Studies or, Travels with Pete" Photographs by Peter Lee

Peter Lee calls himself "not so much a travel photographer as a photographer who travels." In this exhibit he captures the natural beauty and rich cultural life of Canada. He also shares his black and white photo essay of Greenwich Village and his photographs of vintage automobiles.

Art Talk

(N) Wednesday, July 6, 7:30 p.m.

Join photographer Peter Lee as he discusses his work in the Gallery. Refreshments will be served.

Human Rights Video Project

The Library has received a grant from National Video Resources in the form of a collection of 12 documentary videos focusing on human rights issues. Created in partnership with the American Library Association, funding for the Human Rights Video Project was provided by the John D. and Catherine T. MacArthur Foundation. An annotated list of the documentaries is available at the Reference Desk in both library buildings.

FOR ADULTS

Dinosaurs in the 21st Century: New Views of Old Bones

(N) Monday, July 18, 7:30 p.m.

Sixty-five million years ago an asteroid, 6 miles in diameter, crashed into the Yucatan Peninsula and changed the course of evolution on earth. The dinosaurs who had inhabited the earth for 150 million years suddenly became extinct. In this lecture presented by The Science Club of Long Island, Hofstra University's Dr. J. Bret Bennington will take us on a journey millions of years into the past as we explore "new views of old bones." All are welcome.
