

FOR ADULTS

Men & Women Who Shaped America & the World

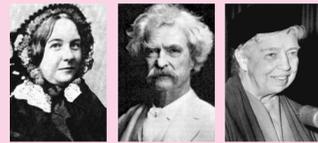

What are the experiences and qualities that enable some men and women to rise to prominence and have significant impact on their time and on generations to come? By what criteria do we gauge the contributions of these leaders in various areas of our society?

Join us for Men & Women Who Shaped America & the World, a six-part film and discussion series moderated by Michael D'Innocenzo.

Mr. D'Innocenzo is a professor of history at Hofstra University and The Harry H. Wachtel Distinguished Teaching Professor for the Study of Nonviolent Social Change. A documentary film will be shown during each program. Mr. D'Innocenzo will set the scene for each film and provide background information to enhance the viewing experience. All are invited to join in the discussion.

All programs will take place at the Northport Library. Refreshments will be served.

GALLERY EXHIBITS

Northport Gallery:

"Common Sense: Uncommon Anxiety"
(in case of rain, roll up and run)
Prints by Doris Rowe

Northport artist Doris Rowe will display several giant canvases and vellum prints as wall hangings. In both content and form, Ms. Rowe combines contradictory elements. As social protest, her folios address contemporary public issues. Traditional concerns with the components of two-dimensional design and aesthetics coupled with the challenge of using tools of the digital age have been resolved in this body of work. Direct handling of each work, mounted from simple grommets and freed from frames, are meant to contribute to a sense of urgency.

Art Talk

(N) Thursday, October 6, 7:30 p.m.

Doris Rowe will discuss her work on exhibit in the Northport Gallery. Refreshments will be served.

East Northport Gallery: Pastels and Watercolors by Russell Day

Russell Day is a retired airline pilot who always wanted to draw and paint. Following a stint in the Navy, he went on to work as a commercial pilot until his retirement. Between flights, Mr. Day kept up his artwork and was able to attend the School of Visual Arts, Hofstra University, and C.W. Post. He is a member of the Art League of Long Island. His love for sailing, flying, skiing, and gardening are reflected in his work.
